Saturday, July 10, 2010
9 a.m. - 12 noon
$15.00 per child

Radical Reptiles is a camp for children ages 5-6. This hands-on camp allows campers to observe a variety of snakes, lizards and tortoises from around the world. Children will learn about cold-blooded animals and how they are different than other kinds of animals. Camp includes a craft activity, snack, full guided tour of the sanctuary, and more. This camp allows for, and requires, one parent or guardian to attend with their child(ren). Camp limit is 15 children. Younger or older siblings may join along upon special request.

“Monkeyin’ Around”

for ages 7 - 8
Saturday, July 17, 2010
9 a.m. - 12 noon
$15.00 per child

Monkeyin’ Around is a camp for children ages 7-8. Campers will learn first-hand what it means when their parents say they’re “acting like monkeys”! Observe a variety of primates and learn what they like to do and eat. Camp includes a craft activity to make an enrichment toy for a pet dog or cat to take home, snack, a guided tour, and animal encounters. Camp limit is 20 children.

“Safari Supper”

for ages 9 - 12
Saturday, August 14, 2010
1:00 - 5:00 p.m.
$25.00 per child

Safari Supper is a camp for children ages 9-12. Campers will experience what it takes to keep our animal residents well fed and healthy. Campers will learn what exotic animals eat in the wild and in captivity. They will prepare meals for over half of our animal residents, some of which will be presented during the 3 p.m. Enrichment Tour. Camp includes a special craft activity, snack, guided educational tour, animal encounters, and more. Camp limit is 20 children.
